CATATAN PELIPUR LARA

Guratan kenangan yang masih tersisa walau disapu badai

Aku kan Hentikan Dunia dan Meleleh Bersamamu (Bag. II)

> When people say they are hoping to freeze a moment when they take a photograph, what they really want is to feel the same way, experience the same thing when they look back at at the photograph. Photography is grasping at the immortality of experience, and it always falls short.
> People photograph because they hope to be able to not only remember what was happening when they took the photo, but essentially step inside the frame and live in that moment again. It will never happen, but it is potently close.
